

Alaskans Against the Death Penalty Annual FISH FRY Featured Speaker: Billy Neal Moore

Billy Neal Moore spent almost 17 years on Death Row and was scheduled for execution 13 times. Once he came within 7 hours of being electrocuted. Moore is a deeply committed Christian and Pentecostal minister and speaking out against the Death Penalty has been almost a full time job for him. He was finally released from prison in 1992.

The message that Moore delivers, is particularly salient because unlike Death Row survivors who have been released after being found to be innocent, Moore acknowledges his guilt. "Oh, I did it," he says pensively. "I did it, and I pleaded guilty." Moore is the only prisoner who entered a guilty plea to murder to be released from Death Row and paroled. Mr. Moore's sentence was changed from death to life in prison by the Georgia Parole Board after communication from Mother Teresa.

You won't want to miss hearing Mr. Moore's compelling story.
